With me it is different. I always say, as did the early settlers, "By the grace of God, and my own exertion, all things are possible," and they are. Lots of people believe in predestination, others say, "as you make your bed, you lie." I believe that the Lord gives a fellow a start, and says "go to it." or perhaps he places you under the watchful protection of a wife. (Oh that I might have the experience.) I just read where Papa, when leaving, told his five-year-old toy that he must take good care of namma as she was now left with him. This seemed to distress Tommy. him.
